4. Required Signatures

This Section 4 must be signed and dated.

In some cases, you will need to have the signature on your redemption request guaranteed in Section 5. A signature guarantee is designed to protect you and the Funds from fraud. It is required in each of these situations: You request any change in your current account registration, you want to sell more than $50,000 in shares, you want the check mailed to an address other than the address on your account registration, your address of record was changed within the past 90 days, you want the check made payable to someone other than the account owner(s), your name has been changed by marriage, divorce or otherwise. Signature guarantees can be obtained from a commercial bank, broker-dealer, credit union (if authorized under state law), or securities exchange or association. A notary public cannot provide a signature guarantee.

Signature of Shareholder, Trustee or Custodian Date _____

Signature (Joint Owner, if any) _____

Date _____

5. Signature Guarantee

Signature Guarantee:

Each signature must be guaranteed by a bank, broker-dealer, savings and loan association, credit union, national securities exchange or any other "eligible guarantor institution" as defined in rules adopted by the Securities Exchange Commission. Signatures may also be guaranteed with a medallion stamp of the STAMP program or the NYSE Medallion Signature Program, provided that the amount of the transaction does not exceed the relevant surety coverage of the medallion. A signature guarantee may NOT be obtained through a Notary Public.
